Description

Rare suite of six armchairs model Dr. No, designed by Philippe Starck for Kartell, an emblematic piece of contemporary Italian design. This now iconic model perfectly illustrates Starck's formal vocabulary: fluid lines, architectural silhouette, balance between visual lightness and comfort of use. Made from molded polypropylene, these armchairs have a sober, timeless elegance. Their sculptural design is equally at home in tasteful classical interiors as in more minimalist or contemporary architecture. Presented in a suite of six, they make up a particularly decorative and sought-after ensemble. Edited by Kartell, a major reference in Italian design, these seats are among the designer's most recognized creations. A very handsome, homogeneous set, ideal around a
