

Napoleon III Inkwell In Boule Marquetry Decorated With Bronze And Its Penholder

590 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Superb Napoleon III period inkwell, crafted in marquetry known as Boule marquetry, combining brass and tortoiseshell on a dark background. Richly decorated with finely chased gilded bronzes: falls decorated with mascarons, claw feet, openwork gallery and rocaille motifs of great elegance. The interior is decorated with an antique penholder with metal nib, adding to the charm and authenticity of the ensemble. The compartmentalized interior houses an antique penholder with metal nib, adding to the charm and authenticity of the ensemble. Features: Era: 19th century (Napoleon III) Materials: wood, Boule marquetry (brass), gilded bronzes Condition: good overall condition, slight wear from use (see photos) Decorative and

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0607415540

Varredes 77910

collectible object, ideal for an antique desk or display case Dimensions: 26 cm long x 18 cm wide x 11 cm high