Description

A magnificent example of 19th-century taxidermy in a display case by the renowned James Hutchings of Aberystwyth. This showcase features two perfectly preserved pheasants, set against a naturalistic backdrop of rocks, plants and the decorative touch of a butterfly resting on the rocks. The showcase is in good overall condition, despite some age-related wear and tear, notably a small chip in the lower left corner of the glass. The pheasants, meanwhile, remain intact and of great beauty, testifying to Hutchings' exceptional craftsmanship and striking realism. Dimensions: Width: 72 cm Height: 58 cm Depth: 22 cm A highly decorative collector's piece, ideal for any lover of interior decoration or taxidermy.
