Description

Solid walnut semainier / chiffonnier, Napoleon III period - 19th century
Elegant solid walnut semainier, Napoleon III period, resting on a molded base and opening at the front with seven drawers. The front is punctuated by beautiful turned detached columns, typical of the style, harmoniously framing the drawers. The latter feature superb walnut veining, with attractive work on the front, and are trimmed with original brass handles. The drawers are dovetail-mounted, a testament to careful, traditional craftsmanship. The ensemble offers fine cabinetry, both in structure and balanced proportions. The overhanging top is highlighted by elegant molding, bringing relief to the ensemble. Dimensions: Height: 146 cm Width: 80 cm Depth: 51 cm Era: 19th
