Description

A small oval oil painting on paper, with a contemporary 18th-century frame. The scene depicts a port in Northern Europe, likely Dutch, as suggested by the red, white, and orange flags. In the center, several merchant sailing ships are moored near the shore; on the left, a tall, dark building with a clock tower overlooks the water, flanked by narrow houses with sloping roofs. Near the tower, small, barely sketched human figures bring the pier to life.The sky occupies a large part of the composition: it consists of dense, luminous clouds in shades of gray and blue.
