Description

An elegant crackle-glazed ceramic animal sculpture depicting a walking feline, with a powerful and stylized modeling characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic. This piece comes from the Belgian manufacturer Émaux de La Louvière, renowned for the quality of its production between the two World Wars. It features a beautiful, finely crackled ivory glaze, highlighting the volumes and dynamism of the composition. The treatment of the body, both naturalistic and stylized, as well as the quality of the modeling, perfectly illustrate the expertise of this manufacturer in the 1920s and 1930s. A striking decorative piece, ideal for an Art Deco or contemporary interior. Period: circa 1930. Dimensions: Length 41 cm - Height 27 cm. Condition: very good overall condition, with a
