Description

Reber - Marine with sailboat - Oil on canvas

Charming oil on canvas signed Reber, depicting a sailboat at anchor in a calm, luminous atmosphere. The boat, finely detailed with its masts and sails folded back, is reflected delicately in peaceful, bluish-hued water. A small red boat in the foreground provides a subtle contrast and enlivens the composition. The overall impression is one of quietude and lightness, reinforced by a soft palette dominated by blues and grays. The brushwork is supple, with interesting work on the reflections and transparency of the water. A very pleasing decorative work, typical of twentieth-century seascapes.
