Description

Large, hand-painted earthenware centerpiece made by the Jules Verlingue workshop in Desvres, France. Late 19th-century creation. Spectacular piece in richly decorated fine earthenware, composed of a central vase resting on a sculptural base formed by two facing dragons, supporting three tri-lobed bowls. The ensemble is distinguished by a highly refined polychrome decoration blending floral bouquets, animated lake landscapes (boats, architecture) and foliage. 39cm. Signature under the heel.
