with grazing cows, accompanied by shepherds and their dog, set within a natural rural landscape.

The artwork displays a refined naturalistic landscape painting, with careful attention to the details of the animals, the rendering of light, and the perspective depth of a wide river landscape.

The composition is harmonious and typical of the European 19th-century realist tradition. The brushwork is controlled and measured.

The antique painting is signed in the lower right corner by Van Campenhout (19th-20th century), a Belgian landscape painter, active between the late 19th century and the early 20th century.

The oil painting is housed in a beautiful original gilded frame in fine gold leaf, Belgian School.

Both the antique painting and the frame have been professionally and carefully restored.
