Description

Vibrant kilim from Mut in the Taurus Mountains of southeastern Anatolia. Woven wool on hand-spun wool. The weave is very fine and tight. The piece is supple and surprisingly light. Exclusively vegetal hues, deep and luminous. The palette of hues used and the composition are reminiscent of an ancient production from the Mut region. Motif of running water, nomadism, motifs also linked to protection with wolf mouths and stylized eagle wings symbolizing freedom. Scorpions inside the central section. In a word, the diversified lexical field of ancient Anatolian kilims... Circa 1920 Perfect condition Dim : 146 x 115 cm Laurent Beauty of Kilims
