

Pair Of Louis XVI Period Mahogany Showcases, Circa 1780

2 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Pair of Mahogany Showcases from the Louis XVI Period, Circa 1780. Exceptional Pair of Mahogany Showcases from the Louis XVI Period, Resting on Cutaway Legs. This Pair of Showcases, Opening by a Partially Glazed Door on the Front, Revealing Three Height Adjustable Interior Stages. They are trimmed with a pretty St Anne Grey Marble Top with Cut Joints following the Line of the Showcase. Its mullions are cut. Beautiful Mahogany wood. Gilded bronze keyhole. With its own Key. Furniture of Fine Manufacturing Quality with Sober and Refined Lines. This Pair of Showcases Combines Practical Utility Thanks to its Numerous Storage Spaces, Ideal for Displaying Your Precious Objects, Art, Decoration, Collections. But also rendering a Sublime Visual with its Harmonious

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

and Elegant Curves. They'll adapt easily to your decor. These unusual, beautifully proportioned pieces in carefully selected woods embody the refinement of Louis XVI period furniture, and will enhance your home..