Description

A nice duo in Limoges porcelain, edited by Haviland and Castel Limoges for Armagnac Chabot, based on a design by Sandoz. Both feature a duck or goose in white porcelain, decorated with feathers and a transfer eye in shades of brick, pale green and brown. These are 2 Limited Editions. The decanter by Castel Limoges, hand-numbered 8509, edition of 15,000, dated 1987, other hand-numbered 3.88. The mignonette is stamped under the Haviland Limoges base. Carafe 29cm max height, approx. 13-14cm max width, approx. 16cm deep. Perfect condition, pourer stopper present under lid. Miniature 13.5cm high, approx. 7cm wide by approx. 8cm deep. Very good condition for both, small manufacturing defect on the tail of the mignonette. Approx. 1.400kg for the set.
