Description

Beautiful large antique painting, still life, painted in oil on linen canvas, signed L. Porte and dated 1888. The composition depicts a bouquet of chrysanthemums in shades of white, yellow, orange and red, arranged in a brown vase set on a blue tablecloth, accompanied by a notebook and knife on the right. Naturalist style. Canvas alone 46x40.5cm, frame 59.5x51x3cm. The canvas, obviously unvarnished, is in very good condition for its age with a few discreet marks of age. The frame, in wood and gilded stucco, has been home-restored and entirely repainted; the stucco is cracked but solidified. Three old hangers are present on the reverse, it is advisable to replace them for secure hanging. Approx. 2-3kg.
