Description

Napoleon III Occasional Table in the Louis XV Style - Floral Marquetry & Gilt Bronze Mounts
Napoleon III period occasional table, inspired by the Louis XV style, raised on gracefully cabriole legs adorned with delicate gilt bronze mounts. The top features a finely crafted floral marquetry panel, framed by an elegant gilt bronze molding running along the entire perimeter. The piece is further enhanced by inlaid boxwood stringing, particularly visible on the frieze, adding an extra touch of refinement. The frieze conceals a discreet and functional drawer, ideal for everyday use. The front angles are highlighted by gilt bronze trims, while decorative mounts at the base of the legs complete the balance and elegance of the overall silhouette. Crafted from native woods, this piece
