Description

We are pleased to present this stunning 19th-century oil painting on canvas. The work depicts a riverside landscape in a unique vertical format that makes a striking visual impression. The landscape is rich in detail: in the foreground, several people are fishing on the riverbank. In the center, a large, ancient two-arched bridge is surrounded by tall trees, while a house can be seen in the background. A sky with delicate white clouds perfectly completes the scene. An idyllic landscape that conveys serenity and peace, where humanity is in perfect harmony with nature. The painting has minor color loss in the lower section; please examine all photos carefully. Thanks to its quality and unique vertical format, this painting will become the focal point of the room, lending an
