Description

Oil on panel by the Livorno painter Renato Natali, executed in the 1960s. The painting depicts a snowy urban scene with a horse-drawn carriage and figures sheltering under umbrellas. The atmosphere is quiet and evocative, with a strong sense of mood. The brushwork is concise yet expressive, using a restrained palette to convey the cold light and reflections on the snow-covered ground. The composition is balanced and animated by subtle narrative elements. Signed "R. Natali" lower right. Good overall condition. Dimensions: Painting cm 50 x 35
