Description

Curved marquetry chest of drawers - Louis XV style, late 19th century. Superb curved all-surface chest of drawers in precious wood marquetry with floral decoration, opening with two drawers on the front. French 19th-century work in the Louis XV taste, featuring an elegant curved line with curved front and sides. The finely executed inlaid decoration consists of floral bouquets and foliage, arranged on a frieze veneer forming chevron effects. The sides are also ornate, a sign of careful, decorative workmanship. Rich ornamentation of gilded bronzes (handles, key escutcheons, sabots and falls) in the rocaille style, bringing relief and refinement to the ensemble. Molded marble top (breche), perfectly matching the curved forms of the commode. Rests on four cambered legs finished with bronze sabots. Epoque: 19th century
