Description

Louis XVI Dressing Table
Origin: Italy - Lake Garda
Dimensions: 127 × 60 × 93 h cm
An elegant late 18th-century Louis XVI dressing table, characterized by the simple, balanced lines typical of the Neoclassical style. Crafted in walnut, it features exquisite surfaces veneered in olive burl. The finely executed maple inlays delineate geometric frames and Greek fret motifs, creating a refined chromatic contrast and a composition of great harmony. A particularly charming feature is the two heart-shaped inlays visible on the olive burl veneer surface. The three-drawer front is enhanced by original metal grilles and handles, while the sides and top maintain a sober elegance, allowing the quality of the materials and craftsmanship to shine through. The tapered legs complete the structure with
