Description

We are pleased to present this antique Italian sideboard, crafted from solid walnut and dating back to the mid-19th century. This sideboard features the typical characteristics of the Louis Philippe period. Equipped with two doors featuring decorative central panels, it offers ample storage space with an interior shelf. A long drawer provides space for storing small items. The interior is lined with traditional, restored wallpaper. Delicate gilded bronze handles and plates create an elegant visual accent. This refined sideboard can be placed in any room of the house--kitchen, living room, or entryway--offering functionality and unparalleled historical charm. Aesthetically, this sideboard has a simple, linear appearance with a rich brown walnut finish, making it perfect for classic
