An Anglo-saxon Bronze Enameled Cloisonné Brooch 10th-11th Century Ad

350 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 2,5 c.m.

Description

A beautiful gilded bronze disc brooch from the 10th to the 11th century A.D. with seven radiating lobes or legsto the rim; each handle with a blue, black and white enamel insert(one partly remaining and one missing); main body divided into six, all filled withfilled with blue and green enamel.The cloisonné technique uses compartments constructed from wirethen filled with colored powdered "glass" and fired.Diameter: 25 mm.Condition: see photos. Iron pin missing.Weetch type 20.ASearch location: Norfolk

Dealer

Wonders are Collectible
Sculptures & Works of Art
Mobile : 00 31 653179741

Utrecht 3701EV