Description

Mythological scene, oil on canvas, late 19th century, by Louis Ageron, French painter and watercolorist born in 1865 in Valence and died in the same city in 1935. Signed and dated lower right. Painting with restorations. Dimensions : 100 x 73 cm. The son of a stonemason, Louis Ageron studied art at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyon, then at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris in the studios of Jean-Léon Gérôme and Henri Harpignies. He returned to Valence to devote himself to drawing and painting until the end of his life. Influenced by Camille Corot, he exhibited at the Salon de Lyon in 1893 and at the Salon des artistes français in 1896 and 1897. Primarily a landscape painter, he painted views of the Rhône region.
