Description

Elegant Louis XVI period chest of drawers, in finely inlaid veneer, featuring a slightly a Ressaut front with a balanced structure typical of the neoclassical taste of the late 18th century. It opens on the front with three Drawers, a smaller one on the belt simulating 3 Drawers and the other 2 without Traverse . . . The fronts are adorned with warm-toned Satiné marquetry, underlined by contrasting fillets in Precise Wood Marquetry highlighting the richness of the veining. The top is made of a solid wood marquetry, with a very high glossy finish. The top is a 'Marbre Brèche d'Alep', with bec-de-corbin, bringing an extra touch of refinement to the ensemble. The gilded bronze trim is original : handles with turning motifs, finely chased keyholes, and foot sabots. The fluted uprights rest on tapered legs,
