Description

Rare English Arts & Crafts oak sideboard, mid-19th century, by Pratt & Prince - Sunflower motif inlay. An exceptional and rare Arts & Crafts sideboard, dating from the mid-19th century, made by the famous cabinetmakers Pratt & Prince of Bradford, Yorkshire. This impressive piece is a testament to the refinement of traditional British craftsmanship. Made from solid oak with brass fittings, the sideboard is fully inlaid with intricate marquetry, including a striking sunflower motif on the mirrored top section - a true signature of the Arts & Crafts movement. The top section features an elegantly shaped beveled mirror, topped by a decorative arch (note: the mirror shows signs of age-related wear - see photos). The base offers excellent functionality with: 3 central drawers, 3 small storage drawers, 2 large lower
