Description

A masterpiece of 18th-century Emilian cabinetmaking in the Louis XVI style This extraordinary drop-front cabinet exemplifies the excellence of Rolo craftsmanship, renowned for the quality of its inlays. The piece captivates the eye with its skillful combination of different wood species. In fact, the frame features magnificent walnut burl enriched with pink maple inlays and birch details. Although the piece is in good overall condition, it nevertheless requires conservative restoration to restore it to its former glory. Technical Details and Condition The cabinet retains its precious original patina, thus preserving the charm of the past. Furthermore, its generous dimensions of 142x61xh113 cm make it an imposing piece of furniture. Therefore, it is an ideal investment for discerning collectors. Thus,
