Description

A 19th-century treasure to restore to its former glory Are you looking for a furniture project that combines history, art, and the potential for priceless value? This stunning pair of early 19th-century French armchairs represents a great opportunity for antique dealers, restorers, and lovers of beauty who desire an authentic piece rich in character.The Charm of "Piccolo Punto" The true heart of these pieces lies in the refinement of their details: the seat and backrest are decorated with "piccolo punto" embroidery, featuring delicate scenes of figures in period attire that immediately evoke the aristocratic elegance of 19th-century France. Each stitch is a testament to a level of craftsmanship that is extremely rare today.Authenticity and Potential The armchairs are entirely covered in patina, preserving the
