

Shell Cameo Of A Woman With Loose Hair - 19th Century

150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Length : 5 cm

Width : 4 cm

Description

Elegant oval cameo finely carved in a shell, depicting the profile of a woman facing to the right. The delicately modeled face is distinguished by harmonious features and a serene expression, typical of classical aesthetics. The abundant hair, worked into wavy locks and lifted gracefully, frames the face and testifies to remarkable craftsmanship. The figure is adorned with a finely engraved pearl necklace, adding a touch of refinement to the ensemble. The natural contrast between the different layers of the shell - ranging from ivory-white to warm orange - highlights the relief of the motif and underlines the finesse of the sculpture. The reverse features the polished surface of the shell, in gradated shades ranging from cream to orange-brown, attesting to the quality of the

Dealer

Bergmans Scott Fine Arts

Tribal art (African) , Asian art, European art and curiosities

Mobile : 0032475733376

Fax : scottbergmans@hotmail.com

Limburg

Lommel 3920

material used.