Description

Very fine large antique oil on canvas painting of pink peonies in bloom and buds in a delicate naturalistic style close to botanical illustration. Signed lower right E. Jacque, French work, late 19th/early 20th century. The canvas is presented in an original wood and stucco frame, black and gilded, entirely restored, consolidated, repainted and varnished; the reliefs still show some stabilized craquelures that add character to the whole. Frame 64x40,5x3cm, canvas 55x33cm approx. Very good overall condition, antique wood and black stucco frame with gilded decorations, completely reworked: external moldings redone by hand a little visible but clean and complete appearance, repainted and varnished, stucco cracks visible but stable. Painting varnish slightly darkened but canvas
