Description

Khorjin are double saddlebags once used by the nomadic peoples of Persia. They belong to the category of everyday objects that were the pride of their owners. Mixed wool-on-wool technique. Knotted stitch on both sides, the back is woven. The fastening system is intact, only the rings are missing. These utilitarian objects are often damaged, but here the piece is as good as new, despite being over a century old. Exclusively vegetal colors, both soft and luminous. Beautiful harmony.
