Description

Charming little chest decorated with medieval village scenes depicting daily life in the countryside in a humorous way. The various decorations are all made of embossed brass in high relief and plated on a wooden frame. Our chest opens at the top with a sloping, flanged lid. It rests on two side rails, each fitted with two castors. The scene depicted on the lid is inspired by a painting by avid Teniers entitled le jeu de quilles, and bears the inscription in relief on the bottom left of the lid. (see photo). It is in perfect condition, with a few traces of wear and tear, and tiny dents in the brass testifying to the age of this chest and its use (see photo). It should also be noted that the hinges have been changed. This piece of furniture, both decorative and practical, will easily find a place. Dimensions: length 55
