Moroccan Koumya Dagger - Morocco, Mid-20th Century

2 900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Moroccan dagger known as a koumya - Morocco, mid-20th centuryVery likely a diplomatic gift. A very fine mid-20th century workmanship in chased silver and gold on the presentation face.Wooden handle decorated with silver and gold chased arabesques and floral motifs. Silver plate with the coat of arms of the Moroccan monarchy. Silver and gold scabbard chased with arabesques and floral motifs.Blade acid-etched with Solomon's star as well as foliage and interlacing.Oxidations to blade tip otherwise fine condition. Length 44cmLength without scabbard 42,5cmBlade length 25cmWeight 480grWeight without scabbard 257grScabbard weight 223gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120