Description

Beautiful antique Louis XV style mantel with three shells in reference to the shells on the entablature and at the ends of the entablature. The mantel is made of white Carrara marble and dates from the end of the 19th century. It will be sold with a white lacquered aluminum interior or painted matte black with its original three-pane brass curtain. A fireback will be made to order, depending on marble availability. The mantel is currently being cleaned and restored in our workshops.
