Description

The Daum sculpture "Débris Automobile de Salvador Dalí" is much more than a simple work of art. It embodies a daring encounter between the surrealist genius of Salvador Dalí and the artisanal excellence of the Daum house. Crafted in horse crystal, this unique piece transforms an automobile scrap into a poetic, timeless creation, where every detail tells a story. Inspired by Dalí's bewildering and fascinating universe, this sculpture is the fruit of ancestral know-how: the pâte de verre technique. This method, mastered by Daum artisans, captures movement in the material, offering an impression of fluidity and life. The transparencies of the crystal, combined with the flashes of light, create a captivating visual play. The organic shapes and changing reflections invite endless contemplation, where each angle of view reveals a new facet of the work. The sculpture rests on a bronze base, a noble material that contrasts with the delicacy of the crystal. This base, both discreet and imposing, reinforces the stability of the whole while highlighting the apparent lightness of the crystal structure. With dimensions of 39 cm high, 45 cm wide and 14 cm deep, this piece stands out as a central element in any interior. Its 12 kg weight is testament to its solidity and magnetic presence, while remaining easy to integrate into a variety of spaces. This work of art, available in Daum's online catalog at a price of 34,200 euros, is a true proclamation of elegance and mystery. It seduces as much by its aesthetics as by its story, blending Dalí's creative audacity with Daum's artisanal precision. Every detail, every curve, and every reflection tells a unique story, inviting art lovers to plunge into a universe where the imaginary becomes tangible. The sculpture "Débris Automobile de Salvador Dalí" is a major piece for collectors and art enthusiasts. It transcends the boundaries between the real and the dreamlike, offering an unforgettable visual and emotional experience. By welcoming it into your space, you're not just acquiring a work of art, but inviting a part of Dalí's creative soul and Daum's legendary savoir-faire to take its place in your everyday life.
