Description

Pair of 1880s Louis XVI style cassolette in fleur de pêché marble and gilt bronzes. The square marble base is highlighted by a projecting gilt bronze plaque. The bronze foot features acanthus leaves, fleur-de-lis, and broad leaves. The baluster-shaped vases are decorated with garlands of flowers held by small figures representing Mercury, whose bodies end in sheaths. The flared gilt bronze top is sculpted with acanthus leaves, and a removable lid rests in a rebated ring.
