Description

Spectacular and powerful Medusa head sculpted in black marble, resting on an elegant molded base with red breccia fluting. This decorative work, with its remarkable presence, is directly inspired by the great antique models and in particular the famous Medusa Rondanini. The face, at once serene and idealized, contrasts with the ornamental richness of the hair enlivened by finely sculpted snakes and wings. In the spirit of the Rondanini Medusa, this is a work of remarkable presence. In the spirit of Grand Tour works and neoclassical taste, this sculpture combines mythological force with decorative refinement, making it an ideal character piece for an elegant interior or a cabinet of curiosities. Very fine quality of cut and polish, with a deep patina highlighting the richness of the marble. The red
