Description

A majestic dive into a Mediterranean port, likely in Liguria, on the Italian coast. Created around 1930 and although unsigned, the composition, with its controlled construction lines and a harmony of earth colors, ochre, pink and mauve, in contrast to the blue-green of the sea, reveals an evident skilled hand. A work in the "Art-deco" style, the artistic movement between the two world wars and an esthetic current emblematic of modernity, favoring purity and geometry. Oil on canvas in perfect condition. Dimension: 34,6 x 30 Inches unframed and 35,8 x 31,5 Inches with its stained wood rod and silver edging.
