Description

Impressive Carrara marble statue depicting Phryne, by Pierre-Étienne Daniel Campagne (1851-1910). French work, circa 1900. Executed in a neoclassical style, the figure represents the renowned Greek courtesan in a modest yet subtly revealing pose, holding a gracefully carved drapery. The refined anatomy and soft modelling give the sculpture a harmonious and timeless presence. The quality of the marble carving is particularly evident in the treatment of the flesh and flowing drapery. Dimensions: Height: 79 cm Width: 45 cm Depth: 24 cm
