Description

Spectacular, richly ornamented Louis XVI high saddle resting on a curved tripod base. The central shaft is embellished with finely worked fluting and leaf garlands typical of the neoclassical repertoire. The circular marble top provides a refined contrast with the patinated wood structure. His slender proportions (height 110 cm, diameter 35 cm) make this an ideal piece to set off a sculpture, vase or any decorative object. There's some real fine carving work in the garland on the contour of the saddle. As usual, all our furniture is checked in our workshop and is ready to be installed in your home. Delivery from 50 to 80 euros
