Description

Important portrait depicting the Virgin Mary at prayer, inspired by Sassoferrato's famous devotional models. The figure, with its bowed face and lowered eyes, is distinguished by the gentleness of its expression and the delicacy of its execution. The finely drawn, clasped hands reinforce the meditative character of the composition. The treatment of the veil, in particular, is a masterpiece. The treatment of the veil, with its soft, luminous folds, and the palette dominated by deep blues and warm tones, contribute to the overall harmony of the work. Oil on antique canvas, presented on stretcher. Presented in an important late 18th century gilded wood frame, richly carved and molded. Antique cartouche mentioning Sassoferrato. Collection label on reverse. A set of
