

---

Rosewood Shelf With Coat Of Arms - Regency / William IV Period, 19th Century

8 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rosewood

Width : 126

Height : 170

Depth : 41

Description

Six-tiered shelf in solid rosewood, dating from the transitional period between the late Regency and early Victorian eras, with characteristic elements of the William IV style. This piece features turned columns, openwork galleries and a decorative crest, giving it a strong architectural presence. The rosewood reveals a rich grain and warm hue, testifying to the quality of the craftsmanship. The shelf consists of six levels, offering generous space for displaying books, decorative objects or collectibles, while maintaining an airy and elegant appearance. Details: Period: Late Regency / Early Victorian (circa 1830-1850) Style: Influenced by William IV Material: Solid rosewood Dimensions: Width: 126 cm Depth: 41 cm Height: 170 cm Height with crest: 186

Dealer

Bridgeman Antiques

Antiques

Mobile : +31621400512

Molenstraat 120

Apeldoorn 7321

cmCondition:Good antique condition, with signs of use and age consistent with its age.