Description

The figures from the well-known biblical episode in which the Archangel Raphael helps Tobias find, inside the fish he has just caught, the cure needed to heal his father's blindness, are here set against a vast and evocative landscape with dreamlike colors. The architectural style, the colors, the vegetation, and the composition's sense of space all point to a painter from the Venetian region, active between the late 17th and early 18th centuries. The biblical event thus serves as a pretext for depicting a landscape in the grand tradition of Venetian landscape painters. Oil on canvas 70x90 cm - framed: 87x105 cm
