

Pair Of Solid Silver Salt Cellars In The Shape Of Pigs.

480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Pair of sterling silver salt shakers in the shape of pigs. Charming pair of sterling silver salt shakers, finely modeled in the shape of little pigs, with a treatment that is both naturalistic and full of whimsy. Each subject features work in the round with gentle, well-balanced volumes, with lively modeling of heads, ears and bodies, giving the ensemble a particularly appealing decorative presence. The pigs are depicted sitting on their hindquarters, front legs raised, in an expressive attitude full of character. This type of production, both utilitarian and decorative, is part of the tradition of animal tableware, much appreciated for its originality and convivial spirit. The two pieces are matched and form a harmonious pair, ideal for a refined table or amateur showcase. Features: Material: solid silver Weight:
