Description

Charming and rare liqueur service made by Daum for the "Damon et delente" store in Paris. All the charm of an era can be found here with this set, where enthusiasts will easily recognize Daum's production (notably by the stopper) from the 1890s-1900s. Vivid colors enhance the glasswork with a floral bouquet and a frieze of half-sunbursts on a blue background. The decoration is repeated on each glass and the decanter. very fine. Louis Damon et Délenté owned a boutique in Paris (like the crystal staircase, for example) where they resold pieces from the great crystal makers of the period. Decanter height 23 cm, very good condition, circa 1890-1895. Signed in gold under the decanter "Damon et delente, 20 boulevard malherbes Paris" Super collectible set, rare and
