Description

The shape of this living-room games table is designed to take up less space when folded. The open top forms a square (82 x 82 cm) with scalloped edges. It is covered with a "rosewood" colored woollen cloth. The folded part rests on a sliding foot that retracts completely into the furniture's belt. The games table is entirely inlaid with Rosewood, including the 3 sides of the belt, treated in curling. This construction allows it to be presented in the middle of a room, as well as in a corner or console. The table rests on 4 beautifully curved legs terminating in gilded bronze sabots. Beautiful Louis XV period model, stamp varnished by our cabinetmaker.
