Description

This decorative work, in the neo-classical taste inspired by Antiquity, seduces with its gentle expression and the quality of its execution. The young woman, dressed in finely-worked antique drapery, rests her head delicately on her hand, in a pose imbued with grace and serenity. The chasing work is particularly meticulous, both in the rendering of the face and that of the hands and folds of fabric. The figure rests on a richly ornamented seat, supported by stylized feet with zoomorphic decoration, bringing a refined and decorative character to the whole. The deep brown patina, old and slightly shaded, enhances the volumes and gives this bronze sculpture a beautiful presence. A charming decorative piece, ideal as a centerpiece, on a console or in a bookcase, fitting equally well into a classic or
