Description

Animalistic painting with cat and her kitty was executed on the turn of 20th Century by French popular animale painter Jules Gustave Le Roy (1856 - 1921). Unfortunately, not much is known about him at all. It's clear, however, that he was a 19th Century animale artist, who focused his work primarily on kitten and cats, capturing them incandescent poses while creating mishima. Le Roy does have his own distinctive style, his works can be compare with other 19th Century artist such as Henriette Ronner-Knip, Julius Adam and Eugene Louis Lambert. Literature: E. Benezit " Dictionary of painters, sculptors, decorators and etchers"(in French), Paris, 1999; Thieme/Becker, Leipzig, 1999. Inscription: signed lower left. Technique: oil on wood. Original period hand-crafted and gold-plated wooden
