Description

Hermès silk scarf, "Forêts en L'Île-de-France," original 1954 edition and never reissued. Classified as rare (3/4) in G. Fontan's Dictionnaire illustré des carrés Hermès (2024). This historic design pays tribute to the great forests surrounding Paris :

Fontainebleau, Rambouillet, Montmorency, Saint-Germain-en-Laye...combining cartography and landscape in the poetic graphic style characteristic of Hermès in the 1950s.

Hand-rolled silk carré, approx.

33.5 × 33.8 in, presented with its Hermès box and ribbon. Very good overall condition for an authentic 1954 issue: supple, luminous silk, well-preserved hand-rolled edges, deep colors. A lightly pulled
