Description

This elegant pair of wood and gilded stucco wall brackets unfolds its Baroque style with a generosity of form and finesse of execution that make them veritable wall sculptures. Each is supported by a draped putto, modeled with soft lines and supple body movement. Round faces, curly locks and flowing draperies give these figures a tender, theatrical presence, typical of ornaments intended for refined interiors.Wrapped around the cherubs are large, deeply cut acanthus leaves, whose scrolls punctuate the silhouette of each console. The warm gilding highlights the reliefs and catches the light brilliantly, revealing meticulous chasing and a harmonious patina that bears witness to the passage of time without detracting from the legibility of the details.The hexagonal-shaped upper shelf offers a stable
