Description

Neo-Impressionist school. Oil on canvas arranged in a triptych "Souvenirs du Hameau de la Reine" signed lower middle Ch. Picard. 46 X 81 cm (46 X 36 cm on view for the middle panel 46 X 18 cm for the side panels). Early 20th century French school. We have no information on the artist Ch. Picard, other than to appreciate his talent and the originality of his staging. If you've enjoyed the Château de Versailles, if you love history, if you're sensitive to architecture and if you're passionate about painting, then you'll be seduced by our painting for all it represents. A radiant light, a vibrant touch and an all-spring palette will make you love it even more. Painted and patinated wooden frame from the early 20th century (the frame was designed by the artist to display the triptych. Behind the two transverse
