Description

Pair of wrought-iron sellettes with breccia marble tops, mid-20th century work. Elegant pair of sellettes resting on a black-lacquered wrought-iron structure, decorated with soft, balanced scrolls. The light, airy lines are in keeping with a late Art Deco taste tinged with neo-classicism, typical of the decorative productions of the 1940s-1960s. Each saddle is topped by a breccia marble top, also present on the lower section, offering a harmonious, refined ensemble. This warmly hued marble, blending browns, ochres and contrasting white veining, presents a highly decorative design unique to each tray. The combination of wrought iron and marble gives this pair an elegant presence while remaining easy to integrate into a variety of interior styles, as sofa ends, side consoles or
