Description

The two pieces feature a refined, symmetrical composition, with a central ivory background framed by an intense blue frieze. This chromatic contrast, combined with the quality of the decorative details and their excellent execution, suggests an ensemble of particular singularity.The central motif, treated in pastel tones, depicts a classic vase richly adorned with garlands of flowers. The lower part of the vase features a profusion of foliage and foliage elements in rococo style. The central motif, treated in pastel tones, depicts a classical vase richly adorned with garlands of flowers.While they bear no marks to determine their origin, the decorative style, the quality of the design and the chromatic choice of this deep blue, known as cobalt blue, make it reasonable to think that they
